CONTINENTAL EXPLORATION

Don't miss this opportunity to explore Europe from its culinary and cultural heritage to the inspiring views of its scenic landscapes. The Tate in London showcases a prolific collection of art from the 1500s to the present day, and the dramatic views of Moulin Huet Bay near St. Peter Port inspired several of August Renoir's celebrated paintings. It is believed that the Romans introduced winemaking in Bordeaux in the first century, while Oporto has long been known for its fortified port wines. In Carnac, a short drive from Pont-Aven, more than 3,000 prehistoric standing stones were erected between 4500 and 3300 BC, while the seven hills of Lisbon accentuate this picturesque capital, one of the oldest cities in Western Europe.
